Detention Flow Chart

Homework - 30 minute department detention after school

Teacher

30 minute after school

Attended no further issues

Attended but persistent failure to hand Hw in

Failure to attend

HOD / Subject teacher to contact home when student fails to attend first time

Reset

Failure to attend

HOD detention 1 hour

Failure to attend

HOD contact home Study Hall – 2 hours

Failure to attend - HOY and SLT line management to call meet parent

Multiple HW detentions HOY intervention for 2 weeks

Continued issue term HW intervention.

Behaviour - Teachers to assign 30 minute behaviour detention

Teachers assign based on daily bulletin.

If a student has a B2 remove or any B2 listed behaviours, a teacher should automatically assign a 30 minute behaviour detention.

HOY/Behaviour panel identify the subject on staff behaviour bulletin.

Attend 30 minute lunch time detention (no more than 5 minutes late)

SIMS manager to produce weekly detention report for HOY QA

Failure to attend / contact home to inform - 1 reset

Failure to attend 1st reset – afterschool 1 hour detention on Thursday.

If detentions accumulate HOY can allocate double detention on Thursday to clear.

Failure to attend and inappropriate conduct can lead to an internal or external suspension.

2 Hour SLT

Rarely SLT will use same day, 2 hour sanction for repeated behaviours and persistent disruption to learning.
Year team will call parents for permission and inform them of this sanction.