

Latin Learning Journey

Latin might not be spoken any more, but the learning of this language will help you develop your own English, and assist you with learning other languages. We also want to use Latin to learn about The Romans so that we can learn from the ancient world, for today.

The introduction of Latin to our school in 2022 means all of KS3 are starting with step 1, but will accelerate at a different pace.

