

Jenni Chase
(as a monk teaching the Black Death)
History - School Direct student 2014/15

"Training at The Eastbourne Academy has given me the opportunity to become fully immersed in school life. I soon felt more like a member of staff than a trainee. The Humanities department made me feel very welcome and offered me support at every turn. This experience will stand be in good stead for when I start my NQT job at Collingwood College in September."

