

How does Priestley present some of the differences between the older and younger generations in An Inspector Calls?

Write about:

- how the different generations respond to events and to each other
- how Priestley presents the different generations in the play.

[30 marks]
AO4 [4 marks]

What function does the character of the Inspector have in An Inspector Calls, and how does Priestley present this character?

Write about:

- the function of the Inspector, and how he effects the other characters
- how Priestley presents the Inspector as a character.

[30 marks]
AO4 [4 marks]

'Eric is the most sympathetic character in An Inspector Calls.'

To what extent do you agree?

Write about

- The extent to which Priestley presents Eric as a sympathetic character
- The extent to which other characters are presented as unsympathetic.

[30 marks]
AO4 [4 marks]

'Eva Smith shows how society sees innocence as something to take advantage of.'

How does Priestley present the theme of innocence in the play?

Write about

- How Eva Smith is used to present the theme of innocence
- How other characters can be linked to the theme of innocence.

[30 marks]
AO4 [4 marks]